

Applications Open for Appeal Board Members

Hurricane City recently amended the Land Use Code and established a three person appeal board. The City is seeking qualified applicants to serve on this board. Interested persons should submit a resume with qualifications and desired compensation. Board members may not be current elected or appointed officials of the City.

Description of members:

- A. One member professionally trained in land use, law, or public administration;
- B. One member who is not a City resident; and
- C. One member who is a City business owner.

Qualifications for member A:

Knowledge of Utah Land Use law

Willingness to learn Hurricane City's Land Use Code

Expertise in conducting administrative or quasi-judicial hearings

Proven experience in environmental or land use law, city or county planning, or land use management

Ability to plan and conduct public meetings and hearings

Ability to accurately analyze situations, make findings of fact, and apply applicable laws.

Ability to render timely decisions

Ability to read, understand, and interpret City ordinances and any applicable State law

Qualifications for member B:

Knowledge of Utah Land Use Law

Willingness to learn Hurricane City's Land Use Code

Ability to work with other Board members to render decisions

Ability to accurately analyze situations, make findings of fact, and apply applicable laws.

Ability to attend meetings and render timely decisions

Ability to read, understand, and interpret City ordinances and any applicable State law

Qualifications for member C:

Current owner of a City licensed business

Knowledge of Utah Land Use Law

Willingness to learn Hurricane City's Land Use Code

Ability to work with other Board members to render decisions

Ability to accurately analyze situations, make findings of fact, and apply applicable laws.

Ability to attend meetings and render timely decisions

Ability to read, understand, and interpret City ordinances and any applicable State law

Board members will be independent contractors and will not be considered Hurricane City employees.

Please submit resume and qualifications to the City Planning Department by 3 p.m. on January 4, 2019. All submittals will be reviewed by the City Attorney and City Manager and they will conduct any necessary interviews, along with other persons they may select.