2019 GENERAL ELECTION

CANDIDATES

Nanette Dutton Billings

Kevin D. Thomas

Nanette Dutton Billings

I was born and raised in Hurricane until age 10, we moved to Monroe Utah, where I Graduated from South Sevier High, then SUU with a Bachelor's degree in Education. I married Willie Billings. We moved to Hurricane after college, and raised 5 children. We now have 5 grandchildren.

My parents, Kelly & Sheila Dutton instilled in me, a desire to be engaged in serving my Community, Church and Neighbors. I've served in positions from; Little League Board, Director of Hurricane City Christmas Tree Festival, Coordinator of polling locations for elections, Leadership in our County's Republican Party, leadership callings within my church, and on countless committees. Currently helping with, The Hurricane Suicide Coalition.

One of many reasons running is, we need a woman's voice. The 2 sitting councilwomen are not seeking another term, leaving the council without that important female viewpoint. Other reasons are: Forward thinking and promote healthy growth to preserve Hurricane Valley, maintaining our rights to water, advocate for property rights, not limiting the opportunity for business. I am excited to work hard, Protecting our Future here in The Hurricane Valley, that I love so much.

I am happy to visit with any City Resident.

He hopes to serve the city and help maintain the quality of life hurricane has to offer. Also help navigate the difficulties that come through unprecedented growth and development. The present is great and the future is bright and he is excited to serve.

Joseph Prete

I am running for City Council because I love Hurricane and I want to play a part in shaping its future. Hurricane is a special place with tremendous beauty and recreational opportunities. It is a place with a rich heritage, made possible by the vision, tenacity and sacrifice of its pioneer forebears. It is a place built upon the principles of faith and family. It is an ideal place for raising a family.

My wife is a Stout, one of the founding families in the area. We, together with our eight children, honor the sacrifices of those who have gone before. While growth is inevitable (and necessary), I hope to do my part to keep Hurricane great and to preserve its heritage, beauty and values. At this time of rapid growth, strong leadership is critical.

A little about me:

- I am a Republican and I strongly believe in the constitution, including property rights
- I am an attorney (BYU law school) with unique skills and training that will benefit the City
- I recently served on Hurricane's Chamber of Commerce board (3-year-term)
- I was Editor of the City's Visitor's Guide for 2018 and 2019
- I served an LDS mission in Russia

Kevin Thomas

Kevin has been married for 35 years and has six children. He is a local business owner and is running for a second term on the Hurricane City Council. He appreciates having had the opportunity to work with the mayor and other members of the city council and city employees. He values each person's point of view as a benefit to the city.

Because we are growing so rapidly we face many complicated challenges. Each council member is required to become educated about and vote on issues involving water, sewer, waste, power, roads, safety, crime, recreation, construction, tourism and budgets - just to name a few.

“My goal is to facilitate a better quality of life, for the citizens of Hurricane. I have a clear conscience that I have done my best to accomplish that goal during my first term on the city council. I will continue to stand up for what is right and to fulfill my obligations with honesty and integrity.”

Kevin would appreciate your vote to Re-Elect him to the Hurricane City Council. Feel free to call him should you have any questions. His cell number is 435-229-0462.
